

Dinkarbhai Patel

August 2, 2023

Dinkar Patel passed away on Wednesday, August 2, 2023. He is survived by his wife, Rekha Patel, and his 3 children and their spouses; Amit Patel and Dekyi Bhutia, Archana Patel and Benjamin Groff, and Alpa Patel and Rishab Srivastava, all of West Hartford, Connecticut. He leaves behind his grandchildren, who were the absolute joys of his life - Amiya Groff, Jay Groff and Maya Patel.

Leaving quite the legacy, Dinkar's story began in a village in the state of Gujarat, India, where he would marry Rekha, and they both held a joyous dream to come to America and raise a family that could be afforded a brighter future with unlimited opportunity. They arrived in the US in 1978, and through years of perseverance and unwavering love and selfless dedication to that family and vision, they created a strong foundation for generations to come. There was nothing else in his life that could have made him prouder.

What will sustain through his family is their commitment to one another, he would always share that family must always stay united and be there for one another. He pursued success not for self-serving needs, but rather for his family's prosperity. His family finds peace knowing that he found the purest of joys in his recent years - taking care of his grandkids who brought a twinkle to his eyes and made him laugh every day.

As per his wishes, services for his cremation will be held in privately. In lieu of flowers, donations in his memory may be made to diabetes research

“ My name Rick Douglin, I'm a neighbor who grew up know Mr. Patel from a kid till an adult. I love times he wold see outside his house and talk about his family or just giving me advice on matters in life. Going to miss our conversations and him saying hi from his window. Also remember the times he wold lead me in the right direction as a kid and trying to keep my brothers and I out of trouble he. He will be greatly missed! So sorry for the loss my condolences to the family.

“ I was fortunate and blessed to know not only Dinka but his wonderful wife Rekha and children Archana, Alpa, and Amit. Dinka was so proud of his family and whenever we saw each other he would catch me up on how all were doing. He loved them all and was so happy when he showed me pictures of them and his grandchildren.

I too learned much from Dinka on many subjects. He not only had great insight but also a great and generous heart. He will be dearly missed.
