

Donald K. Huber Jr.

November 1, 2024

Donald K. Huber Jr. of Granby, CT unexpectedly passed away on November 1, 2024 at the age of 57. He was born in West Hartford to Sally and Donald Sr. Don attended Kingswood Oxford School where he was a part of the varsity wrestling team. After high school he then went on to attend Hamilton College with a degree in economics. At a very young age Don developed a keen interest in collecting antiques. This passion led to a lifelong career of being a fine art and antiques dealer. During his travels, he went to Panama where he met the mother of his children. Another sentimental spot for him was Kennebunkport, ME where he spent most of his summers with family. If you knew Don, you probably knew him to always wear one of his many Hawaiian shirts from his collection. Don is predeceased in death by his mother and father Sally and Donald Huber. He is survived by his two daughters, Valerie and Kristal, three grandchildren, his sister Gretchen and her husband Peter Warren, and his cousin Tom and his wife Debbie Hewitt. Funeral Services will be Wednesday at 11 am graveside at Fairview Cemetery 200 Whitman Ave. West Hartford. To locate gravesite follow numbered arrows at Cemetery entrance that correspond with Molloy.
