“ Don was my guardian angel. I was his tenant for 6 years and he treated me like his daughter. He cared about me and watched out for me. I loved all his stories especially about his wife who he adored and also his children and grand children. He was very non-judgemental and spoke kindly about everyone. He was very special to me and I enjoyed every minute I spent with him. Even though he suffered greatly when his beloved wife and later his daughter passed he never lost his faith in God. He was a truly great man and gift to us all. I will miss him very much. I am convinced when it's my time to go he will be one of the first people to greet me. I know he is in peace now and rejoycing with his wife and daughter. You will always be so close to my heart, Don.##imported-begin##Birgit Heidorn##imported-end##
