

Doreen D. McCabe

May 10, 1951 - June 11, 2008

McCABE, Doreen D.

Doreen Dooley McCabe, 57, of West Hartford, the wife of Joseph E. McCabe, died Wednesday June 11, 2008 at St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center. Born in Middletown, the daughter of the late Kenneth and Marion Allen Dooley, she had made her home in West Hartford the past 24 years. Doreen was a 1969 graduate of Mercy High School, earned her bachelor's degree from Albertus Magnus College '73, and her Master's Degree in Library Science from Southern Connecticut State University. She worked for the West Hartford Public Library, and prior to that the Hartford Public Library and the Connecticut Historical Society. Doreen devoted her life to her family, attending hundreds of sporting and school events for her daughters and son, and enjoying family vacations. She loved to travel with her husband, garden, read, work with her friends, and watch the Red Sox. She is survived by her husband Joe, daughters Megan McCabe Welch and her husband Matthew of Boston, MA, Katelyn McCabe of Los Angeles, CA, and Brendan McCabe of Hartford. Funeral services will be Monday June 16th at 9:30 a.m. from the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. in St. Thomas the Apostle Church, West Hartford. Burial will follow in Fairview Cemetery, West Hartford. Calling hours are Sunday from 4-7 p.m. at the funeral home. Donations in her memory may be made to the West Hartford Public Library Foundation PO Box 271663 West Hartford, CT 06127-1663 or the Jimmy Fund at Dana Farber Institute Dana-Farber Cancer

“ Dear McCabes,
Steve, Amy and I want to express our sincerest condolences to all of you. I still remember how many hours we spent sitting near or next to one another at Amy & Katelyn's soccer games and how much fun I had trying to keep Brendan occupied.

After the girls graduated from Hall High, I made sure to keep in touch with her first at the Hartford library and then at the West Hartford libraries, so that I could keep up with Katelyn and Brendan's whereabouts.

She will be remembered by the Freelays, and especially Amy, who remembers accidentally calling her Doreen instead of Mrs. McCabe - a big West Hartford no-no.

Love,
Sharron Freeman, Steve and Amy Alloy###imported-begin##Sharron Freeman###imported-end##

“ I was a co-worker of Doreen's at the West Hartford Library. I didn't know Doreen very well. But for the year we spent in Room 422, Town Hall, Doreen was always with a smile and she shared her humor and kindness to all of us. My heartfelt condolences to her family and friends.###imported-begin##Roseann Hauschulz###imported-end##

“ Dear Joe and family,
I was so saddened when I heard of Doreen's passing. She was a cousin that I admired and looked up to as a model and a mentor in many ways, just a couple of years older than I was. I loved spending time at the cottage at the beach with her and visiting at the house on Farm Hill Road for holidays with all the family. I know Doreen was a great wife and mother and there are no words that ease your pain at this time. Just know how much she was thought of and loved by family and friends. May God surround you all with His love during this very difficult time and know the thoughts and prayers of our family are with you.

“ I will remember not only looking forward to working with Doreen at West Hartford Public Library, but our forays for bagels post-Weight Watchers and a wonderful trip to New York City. Doreen was a remarkable woman, and I was fortunate to have known her. She exhibited strength and grace at the most difficult of times. To her family, my sympathies. I will always keep Doreen in my heart - she made me a better person.

“ Joe & family, I am very sorry to hear of Doreen's passing. We were very good friends in Junior High School and had lots of fun at her house as well as mine. Doreen was a kind and gentle person. Her Mom made the best Apple Pie I have ever tasted. I am sure she put 100% into everything she did. Hang on to your memories. They are yours to treasure.
