“ Dear Bill and Family,

*Doris's passing will leave a void in the many lives she touched...
We share in your grief and send our love.*

With love and sympathy, your friends,

*Lydia P. Ciccarello
Cindy Ciccarello*

O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world lies hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last.

“ Dear Bill and Family,
No words of mine can mean much now. Your loss is far too great and much too close. But in behalf of our Dominican Community, I want to make known to you and to your family, our deepest sympathy. It is my hope and I shall continue to pray, that Doris is now at Home, in a far better place, enjoying the fullness of peace our Risen Lord was born to bring, and gave His own life to insure. At a time such as this, nothing anyone says makes much sense. Perhaps better than most I know that. But maybe the words of a gifted Trappist monk might help: Thomas Merton wrote: Death is where the hills end...and the stars begin. Doris'hills are over now. It her time to be with the stars and their Source. May the deep, inner peace that truth can induce be with you and your family...especially now.
May Mary, the temple in whom God's Son became a priest, keep you and your family near, in her care.
With His Love and all mine.##imported-begin##Fr. John Peterson, O.P.##imported-end##
