“ I was delivering the Hartford Times to your mom and dad. Your mom asked me to babysit for you their daughter. You were only six weeks old and you were my first babysitting job when your parents lived on Jefferson Street. Your parents were great people and I would visit them when they moved to the Blvd.

“ The Shubert Family expresses their condolences on the passing of Dorothy. Frances Shubert went to school with your parents and the ladies in the family spent many happy memories and purchases in Turansky's Fur Salon. May your Mother rest in peace.
