

Dr. Anibal R. Barreto

October 18, 1937 - April 15, 2018

Dr. Anibal R. Barreto

October 18, 1937-April 15, 2018

Anibal R. Barreto of West Hartford Connecticut died Sunday April 15, 2018. Born in Caacupe Paraguay of October 18, 1937 to Albino Barreto and Concepcion Fatecha Barreto, he was a retired pediatrician and child psychiatrist for the Brentwood area of Long Island, New York.

He was a lover of classical music, philosophy and wine. He married Maria Barreto Benitez, his high school sweetheart, on October 10, 1956. He effected the lives of many people through philanthropy, loving guidance and a dedication to medicine and the bettering of the lives of those surrounding him. He strived to live a life of purpose and proved that through his many accomplishments and people who loved and cherished him.

He is survived by his wife, Maria T Barreto, his two daughters, Elisa Piece and Sylvia Barreto Monge, his son, Raul Barreto, his two sons in law, Steven Pierce and Esteban Monge, his daughter in law Catherine Lee Barreto and 8 grandchildren; Joshua Piece, Jacob Pierce, Samantha Pierce, Aleph Monge, Malkuth Monge, Sebastian Barreto, Samuel Barreto, and Victoria Barreto. He is also survived by his two sibling Geronimo Barreto and Sofia Barreto and their children, Gustavo Barreto, Viviana Barreto, Ricardo Barreto, Sofia Volpe and Jorge Volpe, who all saw him as a father figure and protector. He leaves behind many friends and extended family who cherished him as a loving and caring friend and an attentive relative.

Visitation is scheduled for Wednesday April 18th 4-7pm at Molloy Funeral Home in West Hartford Connecticut.

18 de octubre de 1937 a 15 de abril de 2018

Anibal R. Barreto de West Hartford Connecticut murió el domingo 15 de abril de 2018. Nacido en CaacupeParaguay el 18 de octubre de 1937, hijo de Albino Barreto y Concepción Fatecha Barreto, era un pediatra y psiquiatra infantil jubilado para el área de Brentwood en Long Island, Nueva York.

Era un amante de la música clásica, la filosofía y el vino. Se casó con María Barreto Benítez, su novia de la escuela secundaria, el 10 de octubre de 1956. Afectó la vida de muchas personas a través de la filantropía, orientación amorosa y dedicación a la medicina y la mejora de las vidas de quienes lo rodean. Se esforzó por vivir una vida de propósito y lo demostró a través de sus muchos logros y personas que lo amaron y apreciaron.

Le sobreviven su esposa, Maria T Barreto, sus dos hijas, Elisa Piece y Sylvia Barreto Monge, su hijo, Raul Barreto, sus dos yernos, Steven Pierce y Esteban Monge, su nuera Catherine Lee Barreto y 8 nietos ; Joshua Piece, Jacob Pierce, Samantha Pierce, Aleph Monge, Malkuth Monge, Sebastian Barreto, Samuel Barreto y Victoria Barreto. También le sobreviven sus dos hermanos Gerónimo Barreto y Sofía Barreto y sus hijos, Gustavo Barreto, Viviana Barreto, Ricardo Barreto, Sofía Volpe y Jorge Volpe, quienes lo vieron como una figura paterna y protector. Deja atrás a muchos amigos y familiares que lo apreciaron como un amigo cariñoso y afectuoso y un pariente atento.

La visita está programada para el miércoles 18 de abril a las 7 p.m. en la Funeraria Molloy en West Hartford, Connecticut.

Previous Events

Calling Hours

APR 18. 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM (ET)

Molloy Funeral Home
906 Farmington Avenue
West Hartford, CT 06119
(860) 232-1322

Tribute Wall

PM

“ Anibal was my Children’s dr from when they were babies. My eldest son had a 104 temp and him mother called our loving dr Barreto at midnight. He was at my house before I got downstairs to open the door. A gentle kind loving man. I could never ever forget him. The Meringolo family from Dix hills sends their deepest sympathies. We love you Anibal. 💔

Paul D Meringolo - April 20, 2020 at 06:21 PM

YG

Dr Baretto was my teacher in medical school, mentor, and My children’s Pediatrician. He was an outstanding human being and Physician loved by all for his kindness and generosity. He will never be forgotten.

Y Gonzalez - August 01, 2025 at 03:15 PM