

Ed Barrieau

August 13, 1924 - October 1, 2008

Edmond "Ed" Barrieau, a long time resident of Farmington, passed away on Wednesday, October 1, 2008 in Albuquerque, NM. He was 84. Born in New Bedford, MA on August 13, 1924 to Antoine Barrieau and Nellie Gautreau Barrieau, he grew up in Greater Hartford where he graduated from Bloomfield High School. He served in the United States Army Air Corp for four years, he then went on to receive a degree in Political Science from the University of Connecticut. Mr. Barrieau worked in sales for most of his life. He retired from the United States Post Office where he was selected to represent the United States as an ambassador at the International Conference of Postal Workers in Washington, DC. While in the Farmington area, he was a communicant at local Catholic churches and active in community affairs, including a chairmanship of the American Heart Association's annual fund drive. A passionate and internationally recognized genealogist, Mr. Barrieau was proud of his Acadian heritage and shared his understanding of history and his expertise in genealogy with people across the continent. He moved to Albuquerque seven years ago with his beloved wife of 11 years, Lorraine, where they shared a love of travel, classical music and Scrabble. In addition to his wife, Mr. Barrieau is survived by four children, Paul and wife LeeAnn of Farmington, Marc and wife Diane of Vernon, John of Hawthorne, FL, and Thomas of Southborough, MA. He also leaves five grandchildren, David, Elise, Jillian, Daniel and Matthew, and two great-grandchildren, Breyonna and Damien. Friends may call at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave.,

West Hartford on Friday, October 17 from 3-7 p.m. Funeral Mass will take place at St. Peter Claver Church, 47 Pleasant St., West Hartford on Saturday, October 18 at 10 a.m. The burial will be in Middletown Veterans Cemetery in Middletown.
