“ I am Patti Mahoney's oldest sister
I also remember the "outings with Uncle Stanley & Aunt Edith" They are some of my fondest memories of childhood. In 1973 my husband and and boys moved to Maine so I was not at Patti's holiday get togethers. However Edith & Stanley do share spaces in my photo albums with those very fond memories I wish to extend my sincere sympathy to everyone at this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Elaine Michaud##imported-end##

“ I am a daughter of Jane Sheridan who was the sister of Stanley Patterson. I wish to extend my sincere sympathy to your family and friends in the passing of Edith Patterson. She attended several holidays at my home with my husband and children for some years, along with her good friend and neighbor Walter Patterson. When I was a young girl Stanley and Edith had a tradition of taking me and my older sisters to Elizabeth Park every summer for an outing. I have three older sisters and I have a beautiful photo in my living room of us sitting with Edith in our Sunday dresses and Edith wearing a beautiful green dress and looking like a movie star. After the death of Walter, we unfortunatley lost contact. I am saddened by her loss and will never forget her gracious character and her kindness.##imported-begin##Patricia Sheridan mahoney##imported-end##
