SANDWELL, Elizabeth

Elizabeth Brown Sandwell, 84, of West Hartford, died Monday February 14, 2005. She was the widow of Bernard S. Sandwell. Born in Hartford, the daughter of the late Thomas W. and Genevieve Daley Brown, she had lived in West Hartford for most of her life. She was a graduate of Hall High School, 1938, and the University of Vermont, 1942. Besides raising her five children, Mrs. Sandwell had a varied and active life in West Hartford. She gave piano lessons, was a docent at the Noah Webster House, served on the board of the Children's Museum, now the CT Science Museum. An active member of local antique and book clubs, her hobbies included oil painting. She is survived by her five children, their spouses and children; Margaret and Stephen Hoff of Woodbury; Peter and Lanna Sandwell and their daughter Sarina Lili Sandwell of Farmington; David and Susan Sandwell and their children Katie, Melissa, and Nick of San Diego, CA; Elizabeth and Peter Goodwin and their children Peter, Clare and Tom of Madison; and Jane and Joseph Wahl, and their children Lauren, Morgan and Bryce of Lexington, MA. Her sister Janet Swett and her husband Gilbert of Bradenton, FL also survive her. She was predeceased by her brother Thomas W. Brown, Jr. Calling hours are Thursday Feb. 17th from 4-7 p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford. Friends are invited to join Elizabeth's family at the celebration of her mass of Christian Burial on Friday Feb. 18th at 10:00 a.m. in the Church of St. Peter Claver 49 Pleasant St. West Hartford.

Donations in her memory may be made to McLean Home 75 Great Pond Rd. Simsbury, CT 06076. Remembrances and messages of sympathy may be made online at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ Meg & family,

Sorry to read of your mother's death. At least I was able to see your married name and catch up on your family. I'll never forget the wonderful bridal shower you and your Mom threw me 30 years ago at your house. Your Mom was a very gracious hostess and you were a good friend. My prayers are with you and your family today.##imported-begin##Marge Cistulli##imported-end##
