

Evelyn Ahearn McCloud

March 14, 1919 - January 25, 2012

Evelyn Ahearn McCloud, 92, wife of the late Vincent J. McCloud, of Newington died Wednesday, January 25, 2012. Born in Hartford, the daughter of the late Timothy and Mabel Yungk Ahearn, she made her home in Newington for over 50 years. During her working days she was employed by Pratt & Whitney and later as a school secretary at Anna Reynolds School in Newington. In her retirement years Evelyn volunteered at the election booths in Newington and at St. Mary's Church Rectory for over fifteen years. During this time she traveled with Father McLean to help in the presentation of his lecture series entitled, The Journey from the Head to the Heart. She was an avid member of St. Mary's Church Women's Club and in particular enjoyed her participation in the St. Mary's Dinner Club, an annual dinner that she loved and always looked forward to attending. She is survived by many loving family members including her daughter and son-in-law Pamela and Thomas Molloy of Newington; three granddaughters; Shauna Molloy and her husband David Skinner, Carrie Molloy and her husband Tommaso Prozano, and Colleen Molloy. She felt particularly blessed to have experienced the great joy and laughter of her two great grandsons Tommy and Chris Prozano. She also leaves her nieces Kathy and her husband Robert Carterud; and her cousin Elaine Yungk. Besides her husband she was predeceased by her sister Margaret Jalbert and her brother Edmund Ahearn. Evelyn spent her final days being cared for by Donesia Small and Tashima Bates. The funeral will be Saturday at 9:15 a.m. from the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave.,

West Hartford, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. at St. Mary's Church Newington. Burial will follow in West Meadow Cemetery, Newington. Calling hours will be Friday from 4-7 p.m. at the funeral home. Donations in her memory may be made to Vitas Hospice, 638 Hebron Ave, Suite 33, Glastonbury, CT 06033
