“ My Aunt Frances always treated me like her own son. When I was growing up we were a close knit family, we celebrated all the holidays and family birthdays together. When my daughter was a little girl she would spend every Friday visiting Aunt Frances and my late Uncle Frank, they both looked forward to those Friday visits. Frances and Frank were such a cute couple, now they are once again together. I miss and love you both forever, love, Ricky

“ It is difficult to lose a mother and now I have lost 2. My sister Fran was my second mother. She always told me I was the best Birthday present she ever had. She was beautiful and loving and I always wanted to be by her side. She married when I was 8 years old and even then, she always had time for me. She lived on the first floor of our mom's house and any time she had company, I would pop in and was always welcome. And that's the way it went for the rest of our lives...never a day when I was turned away. You will always be a part of me, Fran. I love you with all my heart ... even death cannot separate us.
