

Ganiford Graml

December 19, 2009 - December 15, 2009

Ganiford "Buzz" Graml, age 77, died December 15, 2009 in Hartford, after battling pancreatic cancer. He was born and raised in West Hartford and was predeceased by his parents, Ganiford Joseph and Mary Conway. Buzz was an U.S. Army veteran, and was a dedicated member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, where he augmented at Station New London. He loved the outdoors and his family. He will be remembered by all who knew him for his sense of humor, intelligence, and kindness. Buzz was a creative, gentle man who fought his illness with grace and bravery. He is survived by his wife Jane; his daughter Kelly of Los Angeles, CA; his son Paul and daughter-in-law Maura of Tolland; his daughter Sarah Peltier and son-in-law Jeff of New Hartford; and grandchildren Madison Kelly and Thomas Ganiford. He is also survived by his brother Greg of Hampton; lifelong friend George Lucas and his wife Dolores from Bedford, NH; brothers-in-law Norman Hausmann, John Higgins and Donald Higgins; sister-in-law Olga Higgins; many nieces and nephews. The family would like to thank the staff of St. Francis Hospital Cancer Center for their compassionate care and support. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a donation to the Pancreatic Cancer Network, www.pancan.org. Funeral services are Saturday, December 19 beginning with visitation at 8:30 a.m. at Molloy's Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford, followed by a funeral Mass at 10:00 A.M. in St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 872 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. Burial will follow at Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery in Bloomfield

“ Jane, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Howard and I so fondly remember our times with you and Buzz at George and Dolores's. The best thing was Buzz's sense of humor. He had us laughing all the time.##imported-begin##Pauline Iwanicki##imported-end##
