

Genevieve A. Mango

February 16, 1926 - February 19, 2014

MANGO. Genevieve A.

Genevieve Mango, 88, of West Hartford, died Wednesday, February 19, 2014, after a brief illness. Born in New Britain, the daughter of the late Nicholas and Francesca (D'Avanzo), she made her home in West Hartford for virtually all of her life. She was a communicant of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, was a member of their Woman's Club, and loved her home and neighbors. Ms. Mango attended St. Joseph's College and worked as an accountant / administrator for the State Police for her entire career; she was instrumental in founding the State Police Credit Union. She loved traveling with her family, exploring new restaurants with her friends, was a devoted fan of both music (especially Frank Sinatra!) and the arts, and treasured her membership and friends in the West Hartford Music and Art Club, where she served as treasurer. Genevieve was a member of the West Hartford Belles. She is survived by her nieces and nephew, Louise Ferris and her husband Craig of Sandy Hook, Patrice Mango of OR, Nicholas Mango and his wife Elizabeth Garthe of MA; and her great niece Devon Ferris. She was predeceased by her sisters Louise and Mary Mango and her beloved brother, Patrick Mango. The funeral will be Saturday, with a celebration of her Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. in St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 872 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. Entombment will follow in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com, with donations in lieu of flowers to the American Heart Association.
