

George Francis Molloy

November 5, 2014

George F. Molloy, 71, of Hartford CT, formerly of Manchester, NH, passed away unexpectedly on November 5, 2014, from complications related to his long-time heart issues. George was known as a fun, likable, caring man with a big heart who always had a joke, a funny story, or an irreverent comment to share, often telling them by talking out the side of his mouth and punctuating with sound effects and a facial expression so there was no misunderstanding as to how he felt. George was born and grew up in Hartford where he graduated from Bulkeley High School in 1961. He later moved to Manchester, NH where he raised his family with his former wife Veronica Caffrey Molloy before moving back to Hartford in the 1990's. George worked for over 45 years for Curtis 1000 printing company where he appropriately and successfully applied his affable nature to sales and customer service. George was a member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks for many years, serving for a time as exalted ruler for Lodge 146 in Manchester, NH. George loved basketball, reading a good book, spending time with his grandkids and holding court from his seat at the Maple Cafe. He was well loved by many and will be deeply missed. George is survived by his five children Brigid Davis, Nora Molloy, Daniel Molloy, Mary Rioux and Michael Molloy, and their families, including his four grandchildren Katherine Davis and Amelia, Eleanor and Peter Rioux of NH; his sister Josephine Horan and his brothers James Molloy, Donal Molloy, Thomas Molloy and John Molloy as well as innumerable nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his sister Noreen McCusker. Calling hours will be Sunday, November 9 from 3pm to 6pm at Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave in West Hartford, with an informal gathering of friends at The Maple Cafe on Maple Ave., Sunday evening. The funeral will be Monday, November 10, at 9:15 a.m. from the funeral home, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. in St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 872 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. A gathering of friends and family will be held in the church hall immediately following services. Burial will take place at Mount Saint Benedict's Cemetery in Bloomfield, CT at 11am on Tuesday, November 11. The family wishes to extend deepest thanks to Dr. Melissa Ferraro-Borgida and all of the other Doctors and medical staff who provided him with a tremendous quality of care for many years.

“ I said this on Face Book, in response his son Dan's note, but to me, it's what George was all about...he charmed EVERYONE who was lucky enough to be a part of his audience. What a wonderful man and great friend he was to us all! He always made me/us smile, even on the rare occasion when he was grumpy, he still had a sense of humor...I am going to miss you George!!!

My thoughts and prayers are with his whole family, but at the same time, how lucky you guys were to have him for 71 years, me for 20 or so yrs at Curtis...I'm sure George would've appreciated this comment!

“ I consider myself a lucky person to have known and worked with George. He was kind, persnickety, true, quick witted, quite dashing and just a good person. My sincere condolences to his family. George, I raise my glass to you. Fondly, Sheila Rapp

“ I first met George when he was a young man in the 60's , not sure just when he started working at Curtis but I was a CRS with Curtis as my account..

The last time I remember spending time with George was during a 3 day training trip to Atlanta.. George was the life of the dinner parties and the late evenings in the hot tub.. George must have loved it, 5 of us girls and him... What a great guy he was.. and from what I've been reading on the Curtis group pages he was dearly loved by many of the Curtis gang long after my Curtis days.. We'll miss your presence George but you'll live forever in our memories.

“ I remember how he always wore his readers upside down . He was the most likable ordinary guy I ever met and he will be missed very much. He was one of only a couple people at Curtis who made me laugh everyday.
