“ I remember Miss Welch as a kind and gentle person and an extraordinary math teacher. She was my math teacher sometime in the late 1970s and I'll always remember her as a caring, devoted teacher. May her memory be a blessing to your family. Andrew Lieberman, Bloomfield High School Class of 1979.

“ Germaine and I were classmates at Saint Joseph College. I remember her as spirited, fun and direct. Soon after the new library was built we soon discovered we could sign out for the library exits of their many back doors to a waiting car, (we has a 8p curfew but could stay at the library until 12m.) do the math. Germaine kept shouting my name “Mary Anne Gaetti is sneeking our the back door “ since their was one nun at the front desk to check books, there were no worries I would get caught. Germaine knew that too.I smiled and wavesd to Germaine. And went o my merry way.
