

Gilbert R. Fazio

April 25, 1924 - September 1, 2010

Gilbert R. Fazio, 86, died suddenly at his home in West Hartford on Sept. 1, 2010. Born in Hartford to the late Vittorio and Lena DeBaradino Fazio of Calabria and Abruzzi in Italy, Gil lived in Hartford's North End for over 60 years before moving to West Hartford. A graduate of Weaver High school, he played semi-pro baseball with his beloved brother Carl and always fondly remembered the old days. He was an avid sports fan and his team was the Yankees. Gil worked for the Travelers for over 30 years. He was a good and kind man who loved his family and made friends wherever he went. Gil will be deeply missed and forever loved. He leaves his wife Bianca Cappiello Fazio, his son Robert of Putney, VT, his nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his brother Carl, and his sisters Nancy and Faye. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Friday Sept. 17th at 10 a.m. in the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Hartford. Friends are asked to meet at the Cathedral. Burial will follow in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield. Online remembrances may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ It was with profound sadness that I read of Gil's passing in Sunday's Courant. Gil was my friend for many years, and even though I have not seen him in some time, I will always remember him as a good and kind man. My expression of sympathy to Bianca, and even though I share her passion for the Red Sox, may the Yankees win one for Gil. Rest in peace, Gil.
