

Gregory B. Jacobs

April 21, 2026

Gregory B. Jacobs of West Hartford, passed away on April 21, 2026, surrounded by his loving wife and children. He was born in Hartford in 1942 and spent his childhood in East Hartford, attending public schools.

Greg, a retired IT professional, was well known in a growing industry for his programming and computer skills. During his career he worked at Aetna, Cigna, and The Travelers. Greg was also an IT consultant. He retired from The Hartford after more than 25 years.

Drafted into the U.S. Army, Greg rose to the rank of Specialist. He received an Honorable Discharge in July, 1970.

A devoted husband and father, Greg enjoyed spending time with family and friends. His many interests included Red Sox baseball, UConn Huskies basketball, and photography. He developed a keen ability to capture wonderful images of nature, beautiful landscapes, and his favorite car, the Ford Mustang. On his many trips to Westbrook, Old Saybrook, Cape Cod and Bermuda, Greg's camera lens found their beauty.

As a voracious reader, Greg always had a book nearby. Thrillers, intrigue, action, fiction, history, Greg read them all. Among his favorite authors are the likes of Tom Clancy, John Grisham, and W.E.B. Griffin.

Greg is survived by his wife of 52 years, Cynthia, son Brian and daughter Diana. He also leaves his sister Deborah Wellington, her husband Reginald and their son Michael, and brother-in-law Richard Price, his wife Cindy and their children Jakob and Jilian.

“ *Dear Cynthia, Brian, and Diana,
We are deeply saddened by the sudden loss of Greg. Our hearts go out to all of you during this incredibly difficult time.
Greg was a quiet and humble man who didn't need many words—his strength and devotion were always evident in the deep love he had for his family.
We will always remember him with great respect and admiration.
Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers, and we hope you find comfort in the love you shared and the many cherished memories that will remain in your hearts.
With heartfelt sympathy,^[1]_[SEP]
