

Harold A. Harmon

July 24, 2015

Harold A Harmon, 89, died Friday, July 24, 2015, at Hartford Hospital after a short illness. Born in Valparaiso, IN on Feb 6, 1926, he was a long time resident of Manchester CT. He leaves behind a son, Warren, daughter-in-law Meredith, daughter, Norah; three grandchildren, Alyssa, Sarah, and Christopher, as well as many nieces and nephews, each beloved. He was preceded in death by his wife, Lois, and his parents, Clarence A and Norah Tudor Harmon. A mechanical engineering graduate of Purdue and RPI, Hal worked at Pratt and Whitney for 40 years. A lifelong model airplane enthusiast, with a strong appreciation for music and a well told tale, he dedicated his life to serving God and caring for the poor and disenfranchised, championing peace and justice in Hartford, and throughout the state, our nation and around world, working through numerous organizations, including Central Baptist Church and Baptist Peace Fellowship. Services will be held Saturday 15 August at Central Baptist Church, 457 Main St, Hartford. Calling hours will begin at 10, followed by a funeral service at 11 and a graveside prayer at Rose Hill Memorial Park, Rocky Hill. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Central Baptist Church for use in outreach. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com
