“Helen was a dear friend, a devoted musical colleague, and one who would never let you down. She served as assistant organist in my early days at Immanuel Church, Hartford, and played the weekly chapel service faithfully. Her cataloguing of over 17,000 pieces of choral music was a heroic feat, and an insurance adjuster who needed to know how much music was in the library was totally amazed when she could answer him without even checking her notes! "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." Rest well.

“Although I did not know your loved one personally, I am truly sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in Gods promise found at Revelation 21:4- "And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more..."
