

Ignatius Scalora

January 10, 2007

Ignatius "Iggy" Scalora, 80, of West Hartford, the husband of Kathleen "Kitty" Scalora, passed away Wednesday Jan. 10, 2007. Born in Hartford, son of the late Salvatore and Lucy Rizzo Scalora, he had made his home in West Hartford since 1968. He was a graduate of Weaver High School, Class of 44, where he was a member of the basketball team. Mr. Scalora was the owner of Interstate Glass Co. in Meriden for 25 years, until his retirement in 1986. Iggy's favorite pass time was watching football and basketball. He was a US Army Veteran of WW II and a member of the VFW Post 254 and American Legion Post 96. Beside his wife Kitty, he is survived by his son William Scalora, two sisters, Josephine "Joe" Mondanie and Angela "Ann" Santuccio, many nieces and nephews. The funeral will be Tuesday Jan. 16th at 9:15 a.m. from the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford with a mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. in the Church of St. Helena, 30 Echo Lane, West Hartford. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, West Hartford. Calling hours are Monday from 5-7 p.m. at the funeral home. Online messages of sympathy and remembrance may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ Dear Kitty & Family,
So sorry to hear of Iggy's passing. He was a great guy. I still remeber the good times we had at Dew Drop Inn. Would have liked to attend the services but I am on my sixth week of cemo for cancer and quite weak. Say hello to all of our mutual friends.
Very sorry for your loss,

“ Billy and Kitty, I believe we were neighbors in hartford. We lived on Darien st. There were eight of us children. I remember you all fondly and am sorry to hear of the death of Iggy. My brother Richard and Billy were friends growing up and as the little sister I remember with fondness those days on Darien and Blue Hills Ave. Take care.
