

Irene Zaccardi

July 28, 1919 - September 12, 2011

Irene Stoppelli Zaccardi, 92, the widow of Henry Zaccardi, died Monday Sept. 12, 2011 in West Hartford where she had made her home for the past 49 years. Born in Hartford, the daughter of the late Joseph and Rose Lombardi Stoppelli, she was a graduate of Hartford High School and attended Hillyer College. Irene worked as an accountant for the State Liquor Control Commission. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Henry J. and Elizabeth Zaccardi, her grandchildren, Sarah and Henry P. Zaccardi, her sister Anne Chambers, her niece Gail and Gail's son Sacha all of West Hartford. Private family services were held in her honor. Those who choose may make donations in her memory to the Universalist Church of West Hartford, Minister's Discretionary Fund, 433 Fern St. West Hartford, CT 06107.

Tribute Wall

“ My condolences to the Zaccardi family -- I knew Irene years ago when we were both state employees, and active in our labor union. Irene was very much her own person!##imported-begin##Candace C. Hall##imported-end##

September 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM