

Isabel Acquarone

July 7, 1910 - June 1, 2010

ACQUARONE. Isabel

Isabel Acquarone, 99, formerly of West Hartford, died Tuesday, June 1, 2010, at Avery Heights. Born in Rochester, NY, July 7, 1910, the 7th day of the 7th month, she and was the 7th member of her family. She was the daughter of the late Rev. David and Irma Peruzzi Acquarone, both born in Italy. Her father, a Waldentian minister and her mother were sent to America as missionaries to work with people who had migrated to the US. They worked in low income areas and as a result Isabel changed schools every two years. She attended Classical High School in Providence until her last years and transferred to Portland, ME. She graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Syracuse University and received her Master's of Education from Boston University. She continued her education taking Social Work classes at NYU. She was employed by the Society for Cruelty to Children in Providence, working in Newport. She retired from the Hartford Board of Education as a school social worker. She was a caring person, working to help people, animals, and to preserve the environment. She was a volunteer with Habitat for Humanity and was a member of First Church of Christ Congregational. She is survived by her four nieces Barbara Slater Frank, Anne Acquarone Hannaford, Karen Acquarone Angelucci, and Ann Acquarone Halfen, as well as a long time devoted friend Ruth Puff. The funeral will be Friday at 11:00 a.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. Burial will be Saturday at 11:00 a.m. at Highland Memorial Park, Johnston, RI.

Tribute Wall

“ Here it is, June, and I was thinking about picking some strawberries. We are holding you in our prayers.##imported-begin##Steve and Pat Zwerling##imported-end##

June 03, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER THE SPECIAL VISITS WITH ISABEL AT WHITING GREENHOUSES AND BOLLERERS FLOWERS. BOTH RUTH AND I HAVE LOST A TRUE FRIEND...DOUG ANDERSON##imported-begin##DOUGLAS PAUL ANDERSON##imported-end##

June 03, 2010 at 12:00 AM