

James Alix

January 27, 2006

James E. Alix, 72, of West Hartford, beloved husband of Joan Houle Alix, passed away at home on Friday January 27, 2006. Born in Worcester, MA the son of the late Arthur J. and Mary G. McNamara Alix, he attended St. John's High School, and the College of the Holy Cross. At Holy Cross, James received both his B.S. and M.S. in Chemistry in 1955, and 1956 respectively. After graduation he worked as a research chemist for Union Carbide in Cleveland Ohio. He later received his J.D. and L.L.B. from the Georgetown University School of Law in 1962 while serving as a law clerk for Chief Justice Eugene Worley in the U.S. Court of Customs and Patent Appeals. James also served as a Patent examiner in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. He moved to Connecticut in 1962 where he eventually became senior partner at Alix, Yale and Ristas, in Hartford representing clients such as Dexter Corp., Travelers Insurance Co., Stanley Tools, and Veder Root Co. before his retirement in 2000. He was President of the Connecticut Patent Law Association, served as an arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association, and was a member of CT Bar Association Ethics Committee and the CT Intellectual Property Law Association. He was a parishioner of St. Thomas the Apostle Church in West Hartford, serving as President of the Parish Council and Home School Association, and singing in the Church Choir. His love of music lead to his involvement in the Choral Club of Hartford and West Hartford Squires where he also served as president. Additionally, James was a youth basketball coach in West Hartford. Jim enjoyed cross country skiing in Vermont, his summers in Maine, gardening, and was proud of his home made bread. His jovial nature, hearty laugh and warm smile will fondly be remembered. In addition to his wife, James is survived by his six children; Jonathan and his wife Kim of Charlotte, N.C., Maura Alix Meece of Groton, MA, Shelia Rogowski and her husband Robert of Highwood, IL, Matthew and his wife Theresa of Glastonbury, Timothy and his wife Noelle of Simsbury, Kristin Alix Herzog and her husband Nathan of Granby; ten grandchildren, Isabella Alix, Emily and Carina Meece, Joseph and Brynn Rogowski, Grant and Clayton Alix, Caroline, Cate, and Claire Alix. He is additionally survived by a sister Carol Alix of Stratford. James was predeceased by two brothers, Arthur and Francis. Funeral services will be Thursday at 9:15 a.m. from the Molloy Funeral Home, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. in St. Thomas the Apostle Church. Burial will follow in Fairview Cemetery. Friends may call on Wednesday from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. at the funeral home. Donations in his memory may be made to the American Cancer Society P.O. Box 1004 Meriden CT 06450, or Hartford Area Retarded Citizens HARC 900 Asylum Ave. Hartford CT 06105. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ Mrs Alix, John, Maura, Sheila, Matt, Tim & Kristin
Your father husband was a kind, caring, wonderful man. He was a genuine gentleman who would do anything to help someone in need. Having spent almost as much time at your house as my own growing up I came to appreciate his humor as well as his quirks. He was a brilliant man who was never too busy to sit down and have a conversation regardless of the topic. Yet he was just as eager to have a good laugh. I can still picture him in the backyard tending to his garden in his striped shirt and plaid shorts only to have someone comment on his clothing selection. His laugh would resonate throughout the yard as he tried to explain how it came about. I have so many wonderful memories of "Big Jim." and it is through these memories that his legacy will live on. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers as you try and deal with this great loss. ##imported-begin## Missy Dannhauser ##imported-end##

“ I just wanted to send my sympathies to you all. With the STA connection, my parents friendship with Mr. and Mrs. Alix, and many of our siblings knowing each other, I got to know Mr. Alix a little bit. Like my Dad, father of 6 great kids. He was clearly a very caring father and a loving family man. I have good memories of the few large families from WH. The Alix family was one of those fine families to me and Mr. Alix was always very nice, pleaseant to me and had a great smile. I did not know him very well, but as a youngster who was friendly with his children and many of the neighborhood kids, I had many opportunities to see him at the house, at St. Thomas school or church. I spent many days in my youth in your neighborhood visiting many of my friends in the Auburn Rd./Morley School area. It was a great place to grow up.

I am traveling on business and cannot be there to pay my respects. So, my condolences to you all and my heart goes out to you in this difficult time. My prayers are with you.

Sincerely,

Steve Carr##imported-begin##Steve##imported-end##
