“ Dear Arlene, A most special guy, Jim is in our thoughts and prayers today and always...as are you. It was so wonderful being with you & Jim, Dorrie & Tim and Lucia only a couple years ago for lunch together in Madison. I'll forever recall with great fondness and joy my days of friendship with Jimmy. May he rest in peace. With love and hugs, Gerry & Lucia Bryson, Bluffton, SC.

“ Jimmy was the oldest of my Bailey-Gates cousins. Six years his junior, I grew up admiring his self-confidence and sense of style, especially during summers in Madison. I chose Boston College because of Jim's enthusiasm for his alma mater, and he paid me a memorable visit when BC played Syracuse early in my freshman year. Jim didn't think his team had a chance, but the Eagles won on the last play. I am sad that he is gone. My sincere condolences to Arlene, his children, and his siblings.

Rest in peace, Jim.
