

James E. Kramer

February 27, 2006

KRAMER. James E.

James E. Kramer, 65, of West Hartford, died on Monday, February 27, 2006, surrounded by his family in Branford, after a long illness. Born in Chicago, IL, the son of Hyman and Bernice Kramer, he made his home in Dearborn, MI, moving to Connecticut 11 years ago. Jim graduated from Michigan State in 1964 and served in the US Marine Corps. He was a member of both the Tower Ridge and Hopmeadow Country Clubs. He loved golf, dirt biking, cars and above all else his family. He is survived by his loving wife Grace Nolan Kramer; his son Marc Kramer and his wife Liz of Southfield, MI; his daughter Alexandria and her husband Matthew Taylor of West Hartford, his son Mikhal and wife Christine of Wethersfield; his stepson Matthew of Portland ME, his sons and daughter Patrick, Chelsea, and John Nolan all of West Hartford; and his three beloved granddaughters. A brother Michael Kramer and his wife Zena of Bloomfield Hills, MI as well as a niece and nephew also survive him. Friends may call from 6-8:30 pm TODAY at the Molloy Funeral Home 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford. Memories of Jim will be shared from 8:30-9 pm at the funeral home. Burial will be private.