He was selected by the Associated Press as an All-American in 1940. He averaged 7.2 yards per carry, second in the school's history. A loyal supporter of Lafayette football, one of the oldest college football teams in the country, Lafayette hasn't had an undefeated team since 1940! Jim was drafted by the New York Giants, and given a contract by the Mara family who are still part owners of the Giants. Due to the outbreak of World War II, he never played football professionally. He remained a loyal Giants fan his entire life. After graduating from college, he worked for The Travelers Insurance Company from 1941 to 1942, where he met his wife Gerda. He had some of the best times of his life with Red, Bunny and his wife, Gerda. He loved their children, Tim, Kip, Nancy, Anne and Boo, like they were his own. He was one of the founders of the South Windsor Bank and Trust Company, organized in 1963. He was Chairman of the Board for 15 years until it was sold. "Shorty" organized the first Little League team in South Windsor. He coached and later was President of the newly formed league. He was a member of the Squires, The Red Oak Swim Club, and a charter member of the Blast and Cast Club in South Windsor. He was also a member of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Jim loved the outdoors and every spring he would go salmon fishing on the Miramichi River in New Brunswick, Canada with "Red" Shepard and a gang of friends. The same group would go duck hunting at Merry Meeting Bay in Maine. He belonged to a fishing group in the Squires and would go fishing in the fall and spring for "blues" and stripers, often taking some of his children with him. He was a lifelong tennis player starting his career at Crescent Beach in Niantic. He had a wonderful group of friends that he played tennis with until he was 95. He also loved to ski. Skiing with his whole family was one of his most enjoyable sports. "Shorty" was further honored by Kingswood Oxford School in 2007 by being elected as a charter member of the Hall of Fame. He was also presented Kingswood's "Distinguished Alumni Award" by his lifelong friend and classmate, Rich Fisher. He and his wife Gerda loved to travel and visited 27 countries, but his favorite country was Norway, where Gerda was born. He always said, "there are no other countries with the wonderful beauty of Norway"! In his later years at Seabury, he could often be seen sitting on "his" bench smoking a good cigar, where many residents would stop to chat or sit a spell. He loved the Seabury community, the residents and the staff. He was a lifelong card player and enjoyed playing poker at Seabury on Thursday nights, bridge on Friday nights and practicing with his partners in between. The family wants to extend special thanks to his aide/caregiver and friend, whom he loved, Nelda Wallach. She spent countless hours with him, heard all his stories and loved him liked a father. "Shorty/ Scrapper/ Jim will be remembered as being a true gentleman, scholar, athlete, loving husband, devoted father, mentor and role model. Beloved by his family and friends, he touched many people with his outgoingness, ready smile and a good joke. We were all better for having known him and having had him in our lives. One of Dad's favorite quotes, summed up his philosophy of life, "If I cannot smoke cigars in heaven, I shall not go" -Mark Twain. “ I was Jim and Gerda's Travel Agent for many years. They were too wonderful people; kind, considerate, and Jim, especially, had a wonderful sense of humor. I know how he enjoyed a good cigar as we spoke about his love of cigars. Gerda would usually "make a face" when jim spoke about cigars. But it was always obvious to me that he had a deep love for his wife, children, and grandchildren. The world is less for having lost such a good man. My deepest sympathy to the Farrell family. Sincerely,

“ I never did meet James, but i heard many wonderful things about him from Doug over the years. I could tell there was a tremendous relationship between them and that Doug had a tremendous love and respect for his dad. I hope all the wonderful memories you have to cherish will help reduce the pain you are going through.

“ Jimmy/Lynn/Doug & Ann

I have so many fond memories of your Dad and hold him personally responsible for making sure I got to school at all, let alone on time! Reading his obituary, I learned a lot about this lovely man who was a big part of my formative years, who my mom and dad thought so Much if. Even without knowing all this I read today I always realized I was dealing with the greatest of the greatest generation. So sorry for your loss, I hope you too will share and hold fond memories.judgibg from the list of family you all made him happy and proud Best to all, Rick Gersten Washington DC

“ My mother, Mary Brady Egan, adored Gramma and Grampa Farrell and all of her Farrell cousins. Throughout her life, she regaled us with stories of treasured summer moments spent at Crescent Beach with her large extended family. She also proudly spoke of the great success of her "handsome and athletic" cousin, James, who only had eyes for "lovely Gerda." Mom always held James close in her heart (she also adored his dad, Uncle Bob), and I am sure she is now lovingly welcoming him into heaven, united once more with all the Farrell cousins.

God bless James and all his family.

With deepest sympathy,

Judi Egan

“ We have enjoyed Jim's company at Seabury (as have his many, many friends here). One of our fondest memories was for several years going to sit with Jim at "Jim's Bench". It overlooked the meadow and we watched the sun go down. His presence will be sorely missed by all his family and friends!
