

James Gallacher

May 6, 1925 - May 4, 2004

James Gallacher, 78, of West Hartford, peacefully passed away on Tuesday, May 4, 2004. He was the loving husband of Rose Gallacher, his wife of 56 years. Mr. Gallacher was born in Scotland and after living in Canada for a number of years he immigrated to the USA. He was a construction worker and a member of the Laborers International Union. Mr. Gallacher served with the British Marines in the Far East during WW II. Besides his loving wife Rose, he is survived by his son John, his daughter-in-law Barbara and his precious grandson Christopher. Mr. Gallacher also leaves a brother, Michael, in Hawick, Scotland. Services will be private and are being handled by Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford.