“ Dear Geri, Jane, Ann, Jimmy and family, I was so incredibly upset to read of Jim's passing. What an amazing man he was. Growing up right next door to all of you was such a pleasure. He was always there with a smile and a kind word. His generosity and unselfishness will not be forgotten. We could always count on him to help our parents in their older years. My entire family is so very sad for all of you, as he was also an outstanding husband, father and grandfather. I hope in time your sorrow will be replaced by wonderful memories. Love, Nancy Swanson, Karen Smith and family. Hugs to you all.

“ Gerry, Jim & Wendy, Jane & Phil, Ann and all five beautiful grandchildren,

As Jim's sister/brother-in-law, we know that Mr. Mermigos was a very, very special man. His son and grandchildren have been a wonderful, special, and treasured gift to our family. We remember him as a smart, kind, and loving man. Though due to distance we didn't see him often, we felt that we knew him through Jim, Wendy, and the girls as they spoke of him with great respect, love, and admiration. I (Janet) think of him EVERY time I see a Japanese Maple tree! We are so very sorry for your loss, but rejoice in knowing that his special soul will be at peace in Heaven.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all,

Craig, Janet, Nathan, Kevin, Jason, & Carson Bauer

“ To My Aunt Gerry, Cousins Jane, Jim, and Ann, I offer my sincere condolence.

Both our Dads' died during the season of the Greek Orthodox Great and Holy Pascha. Over the days, I came to view this as a sign of their tremendous Faith and true love for all.

Everyone always thought our Dads' were twins, although a slight difference in height; they were true brothers that shared much love. How blessed to have an Uncle like My Dad. Will always cherish all of the time we all shared together; especially when our parents would take us all to the most boring museums imaginable -- thinking they were doing us a favor -- at least they had fun!

Each Sunday our Dads' would talk -- they said the same thing every week, except if the weather changed. It would make me smile; yet their weekly calls truly expressed their love for one another.

Now all of the brothers are together.

Much Love Always -- Cousin Liz
