

James Michael Carey

April 11, 1927 - April 18, 2012

James Michael Carey, 85, of West Hartford passed away on April 18, 2012, at The Hospital at Hebrew Health Care. He was born in Bridgeport, CT on April 11, 1927. He was the son of the late Michael and Jennie Carey, Co. Mayo, Ireland. Jim is survived by his beloved wife M. Agnes nee Bergeron. Jim was a devoted father to John P. Carey and his wife Kristin of New York City and Kathleen C. Gauthier and her husband Christopher of Simsbury. He was a loving grandfather to Maggie, Brigid, Coleen, Patrick, Cameron and Jordan. Jim left high school early to join the Navy during World War II and served aboard the USS Caloosahatchee. He earned degrees from the University of Maryland and the University of Kansas. He worked as a physical therapist for many years at St. Francis Hospital in Hartford. Jim was an avid fan of the Boston Red Sox and the Chicago Cubs. While he had a great love of all sports, he especially enjoyed a good round of golf. He was player/coach of the St. Francis basketball team which for several years in the early 1970's was known as "The Best Amateur Basketball Team in Connecticut". He was for many years active in youth sports in West Hartford coaching basketball and little league baseball. Funeral services will be Monday, April 23, 2012 with the celebration of a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. in the Church of St. Timothy, 1116 North Main St. West Hartford. Burial with full Military Honors will follow in Fairview Cemetery, West Hartford. Calling hours will be Sunday, April 22, 2012 from 4-7 p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to State of

CT Board of Education and Services for the Blind, 184 Windsor Ave., Windsor
CT 06095 or The Church of Saint Timothy, 1116 North Main St., West
Hartford, CT 06117.
