“ Carlise and family, I'm not sure you remember me but Jamie and I sat next to each other at Day, Berry & Howard several years ago. As a matter of fact, Jamie sang at my wedding October 10, 1970. Even though she and I lost touch I thought of her often. I have so many lovely memories. I know she always felt privileged to have such a special sister as you, Carlise. I just found out about Jamie's passing today. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Fondly, Jean Satkiewicz Foisie

“ My Condolence to the Farrah Family on the loss of your Love one, I met Jamie at Day, Berry & Howard she was an inspiration to me. We had good times joking and laughing together, I remember her beautiful smile. I would like to speak to you for Jamie, this touched my heart. And somehow she wanted me to share it with you because it stayed in my spirit.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free , I'm following the path God laid for me,

I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh,a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My Life's been full, I've savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief, Carlise

Lift up your heart and share with me God wanted me now, He set me free.

Again my

Prayers for the family is strength. Especially Carlise I know she was your Sister and best Friend. She gave me the nickname DAZ, May God bless all of the family .

“ I have often bragged that I hired Jamie to be legal assistant for Palmer McGee at Day, Berry & Howard and, with profound sadness, I do so now. My role in the hiring was pure luck, but it proved to be a major contribution to the firm. Jamie provided highly competent assistance to Palmer, whose law practice was varied and intense, for many years. She then moved on to a paralegal position where, again, she was outstanding. Jamie was equally valuable as a person. Her warmth and willingness to "pitch in" made her a wonderful colleague. "The room brightened when she walked in," as the saying goes. For those of us who are fortunate enough to have served with Jamie at DBH, she will never be far from our minds and hearts

“ Palmer McGee and his three children, Betsey, Scott, and Jody, and their families, remember Jamie as kind, gracious, and highly competent. She was a great support to Palmer when he was a partner with Day, Berry, and Howard. To her family, we extend our sympathy and our hope that Jamie's spirit lives on through you.

“Jamie came into my life last year during my duties as a volunteer driver for the American Cancer Society. We immediately found we had much in common, including graduating from Mount St. Joseph Academy ten years apart (where we both sang in The Larks, but Jamie of course was a soloist!)

What was far more evident than any medical issues was her warmth and humor, her courage and generosity, her keen intelligence, flawless memory and gentle but honest way of speaking. It was clear that the receptionists and staff at St Francis and elsewhere were always happy to see her and were as fond of her as I was. She was always afraid of being a bother, but I was so happy to be able to help out whenever I could; Jamillie just brought out the best in people.

"Driving for Jamie" was not just an honor and a privilege, it was also a lot of fun: to hear her stories and to share our common memories. (I introduced her to Crown Market's tuna salad, and she was hugely relieved when I told her they would not be closing!)

Jamillie used to say that her helpers were "angels sent from God", but she had that backwards. She was an angel sent into the lives of those lucky enough to know her; I only wish I could have known her longer.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing and working with Jamie at Day, Berry & Howard for many years. She was a wonderful person with an open heart who loved children and everything about children. When I was pregnant with my third and youngest child, I experienced some relatively minor medical issues which left me with concerns. Jamie was aware of my concerns and in an effort to alleviate my anxiety, she gave me a Saint Gerard prayer card (the patron Saint for safe deliveries), which she went to the trouble to have laminated. Suffice it to say, all went well with the birth of my youngest child who is now 13. Although my "delivery days" are over, I still carry the prayer card in my wallet which brings thoughts of Jamie and a smile to my face everytime I've come accross it. I have missed Jamie everyday since Day, Berry & Howard and will more so now.

Fondly,

Heart felt sympathy to Jamie's dear sister and best friend Carlise. Jamie was a true blessing for all who knew her. She loved Our Lord and everyone whose lives she touched, When those in Paradise are remembered, they know they are loved...and they rejoice...i will always remember you Jamie,
