“ Dear Don, Chrissy, and Michael,

Mere words are simply inadequate in expressing our sympathy to you. We were so deeply saddened and shocked by the loss of your wife and mother. I will always remember our springtime conversations when we caught up on each other's families and looked forward to days ahead to be spent at the beach. It was abundantly clear how much Jane adored and cherished her family and how very proud she was. Jane always asked about my family as well, with heartfelt sincerity, just as if we were long lost high school girlfriends. We are so sorry for your loss. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you all during this very difficult time.

Sincerely,

“ Donald, since the new's of your bride's passing. I've been reflecting on the time when you two met. Jane looked into my eye's and said, "I'm going to date him, he's going to be mine." She knew in her heart, that you were her soul-mate. Love never die's,remember that. She has left us in body, not in soul. I only wish that I could help with the pain that you and your family is feeling. But this kind of loss, put's a whole right thru you. Time they say, heal's a broken-heart. I say, keep her alive in your heart and in your mind. It's ok to call upon her for guidance, she's one of God's Angel's now. She'll alway's be there when you need her. I don't mean to sound strange when I say that.Don, you and Jane will alway's be in all of our heart's. Love you, be strong .... Babe###imported-begin###Linda Myers Babe###imported-end##

“ Dear Donald, Chris, and Michael,
It is difficult enough to accept our parents' mortality, but when one of our close friends passes on at a young age, it is almost too much to bear. We will treasure our group picture taken at Michael's wedding, and we take comfort in the memory of you and Jane having dinner with the group at Christmastime.You take comfort in knowing she loved her husband and children very much. We will miss her.###imported-begin###Scott and Mary-Jo Loveland###imported-end##

“ Christina:
I just wanted to write down some words to say how sorry I am you lost your mother. Something that helped get me through the loss of my mother was remembering what joy I gave her in her life. Remembering those flowers on your desk, I am sure you gave her that same joy. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
