

Janet Neundorff

November 1, 1932 - October 22, 2024

Janet Neundorff, born on November 1, 1932, to parents Joseph and Anna Bellove, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loved ones. A lifelong resident of the Bronx, Janet cherished her childhood memories with her parents and older sister Ruth “Ruthie.”

Janet raised two daughters, Jayne and Susan, instilling in them the same love and pride for their Bronx roots. She had a long, respected career in retail and resided in the same apartment for almost 40 years. After moving to Connecticut over a decade ago, she would often remark that the area was “too quiet,” a testament to her vibrant spirit and attachment to her hometown, though deeply loved being closer to family.

Fondly remembered by family and friends, Janet was known for her humor, unwavering support, and strong will. She never turned down a fresh cup of coffee, a “little something sweet”, or the warmth of a kiss and tight squeeze from someone she loved.

Along with her parents, Janet was predeceased by her sister, Ruth “Ruthie”, her brother-in-law, Ben “Benny”, and her beloved nephew, Leonard “Lenny” Eisenstein. She is survived by her daughters Jayne and Susan and their partners Robert and Rob. Lovingly cherished by her niece Paula (her Pussycat) and husband Donal Kelliher and family, along with her beloved grandchildren: Dayna and Justin, Daniel and Isabella, Kimberly, Alexis, Sarah and Kirby, and Noah, as well as her great-grandchildren Kaylynn, Allena, Connor, and Peter(PJ).

Janet's extended family and dear friends are united in their grief and love for her. She will forever be remembered as a beautiful matriarch and an irreplaceable pillar in their lives. Her legacy of love, laughter, and resilience will continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to know her. In their hearts, she will live on, her spirit reflected in family gatherings and cherished memories for years to come.
