“ Janet's Family, I am so sorry to read of your mom's passing. I worked with her (and Ellen) at Underwriter's Service Agency, back in the day. Janet worked hard and honestly, every day. I have many fond memories of her stories, as well as her common sense life lessons that she was happy to share. Please accept my my deepest condolences, to you and to all who knew an loved her.

I was dismayed to read that Janet had passed. I also worked with her at Underwriters Service Agency for many years. She was a delightful co-worker, energetic and always ready to help anyone who needed it. May all the sweet memories you have of Ellen be a blessing for the whole family.

“ Patrice, Ellen, Maribeth, Brendan

I have known your family for most my life. So many memories of Christmas Days at Ruth's, my bridal shower hosted by your mom, but most of all the Christmas gatherings at your mom's house on Farnham Road. Your mother was always such a gracious hostess and loved when we all got together and squeezed in. We will miss her too.
