

Jean Maynard Cyr

June 12, 2013

Jean Cyr, of West Hartford passed away peacefully at Hughes Health and Rehab June 12, her home for the last several years. Jean was born January 18, 1922. Jean married Charles (Chuck) Cyr in 1961. Both were honorably discharged from the Marine Corps several years apart. Jean led a very quiet life, always happy and friendly, truly enjoying the company of her cat, Rusty, in her later years. Chuck passed a few years back and I am sure they are finally happily together again. A thank you to Hebrew Hospice for Jeans last days. A heartfelt thank you to Hughes and all the great folks there for their thoughtfulness, and excellent care of Jean throughout the years. A burial will be held at a later date.
