

Jean Hughes

August 31, 2015

Emily Jean (Burns) Hughes, 95, wife of the late Robert Wilson and Albert E. Hughes III, of Farmington, died Monday, August 31, 2015. Born in Hartford, the daughter of the late Charles and Emily (Boyd) Burns, she was raised in West Hartford and spent her adult years in Farmington. Jean was an award winning gardener and was an avid sportswoman. She loved tennis, paddle tennis and golf. She was a charter member of the Greatest Generation, and a longtime member of the Country Club of Farmington. She had enormously high personal standards of personal deportment, below which she never faltered. She believed in the relationship between good posture and good character, great eye contact and a firm handshake. She was ferociously and tenaciously intelligent. She is survived by her step daughter Deborah Hughes of Somerville, MA; her grandchildren Benjamin Markham Silver of Somerville, MA, Charlotte Markham Silver of New York City; her cousin Janet Campbell of Somerville, MA; and her honorary daughter Dale Lewis of Yarmouth, ME. Besides her parents and husbands, she was predeceased by her brother Charles Burns. A special and heartfelt thanks to the all the staff at Seabury, most especially the Views and Davis; compassionate, loving; wonderful in all the moments of the road traveled in the final journey. Burial services are private. A memorial service will be held at a later date. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

Her house in Hartford was a lovely yellow--when I was little, every time we passed a yellow house with a lawn, I thought we were going to visit aunt Jean . . .
