

Jeanette McIntyre

July 4, 2013

Jeanette McIntyre, 91, of West Hartford, wife of the late John McIntyre, died Thursday, July 4, 2013, at Hartford Hospital. Born in Forest City, Arkansas, the daughter of the late Hikel and Elizabeth Ash, she made her home in West Hartford for over 60 years.

She had two careers, the first as a magnificent mother of 4 children, and grandmother of 7 grandchildren. She was also a wonderful sales person, well known for her incredibly warm personality in those fortunate West Hartford Center stores (Simmons Shoes, and Val's Restaurant) where she made her customers feel welcome and well cared for, over many years.

She is survived by her four children: Daniel McIntyre and his wife Susan Frassinelli of West Hartford, Jeff McIntyre of Farmington, Deborah Tierney and her husband Michael of Oakland, California, Timothy McIntyre and his wife Eileen of Glastonbury, seven grandchildren: Sarah, Julie, Nina, Kathleen, Theresa, Kyle and Gavin McIntyre.

Her funeral Mass will be celebrated on Wednesday, July 10, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Peter Claver Church, 47 Pleasant St., West Hartford.

“ Dear Tim and the entire McIntyre Family,
I was saddened to read about your mom's passing. I wanted to come to the funeral but I had a previous obligation. I have always thought about your mom as I drove, biked or walked by her house on Whitman Ave. I hadn't seen her in several years but always linked her as my cornerstone while I owned Val's throughout the 90's. Please accept my condolences and sympathies - she was a great lady, wonderful mom and a natural salesperson with an ebullient personality. She was the best!

“ Hi Deb, Jeff, Dan and the rest of your family. I am so sorry for your loss. When a mom of mine (and your mom was a mom to me when we worked at Simmons together) passes it is so hard, brings back memories of my own mom. Your mom was the absolute best! Please accept my deepest sympathy.

Love, Adrienne Doughty

“ Dan, Jeff, Debbie and Tim,

Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. Your mother was a truly wonderful person. During our high school years, I remember her as always having a smile on her face and a warm, welcoming presence...in spite of whatever trouble we were causing. For example, when we would push the little kids off the slide in the shoe store, she would just calmly usher us out.

Given what a great joy you were in your "formative years," Dan, I will not be surprised if the Catholic church eventually makes your mother a saint. It's the least they can do for her.

I'm sorry that I will not be able to make the services on Wednesday, but she will be in my thoughts and prayers on that day...and for as long as I'm still around.

Best regards to the McIntyre clan,

Mrs. McIntyre,

Talked about an outstanding woman who will be missed. I spent a lot of time at the McIntyre residence growing up and to this day I haven't found a more warm, wonderful person than Mrs. McIntyre. I had the pleasure of seeing her a few times on my trips back from Vegas and I was delighted that my daughter got a chance to meet with her a couple of those times.

I know that heaven will be a better place with the qualities that she has adding to it. My prayers are with your family and although Jeff is the one that I see the most there is genuine warmth and love with the rest of the family that I want to send my condolences to Danny, Debbie and Tim as well as their families.
