“ I fondly remember "Jeanette" as Margaret would playfully call her and her great laugh and fun spirit. I saw her often when Margaret and I were roommates right after college. She was endearing and always treated me as another "daughter" hugging and kissing me hello and goodbye when we visited.

She was a lovely lady and a genuinely kind and caring woman....the world was a better place.....and Margaret followed in her footsteps for sure!

You are all in my family's thoughts as you struggle with yet another loss in such a short time.

Love,

Karen##imported-begin##Karen Futoma##imported-end##

“ I first met Ms Cassidy 3 years ago and enjoyed cookies and tea, great conversation about Animal Planet, Ice Road Truckers, Jeopardy and almost any current event. I loved her laughter and smile and only wish I could have known her better---WHAT AN AMAZING WOMAN! I will miss her. She felt blessed by her daughters, their spouses and grand children. I know she has been reunited with Phillip and they are very happy.##imported-begin##Dan Wallen##imported-end##
