

Jeffrey P. Maxwell

July 9, 2018

Jeffrey P. Maxwell, 67, of Avon, died Monday, July 9, 2018, surrounded by family and friend. Born in Hartford, the son of the late John and Patricia Maxwell, he was raised in West Hartford, he graduated from Conard High School in 1969 where he played football. He lived in Granby for many years and then Simsbury and Avon. He attended Strayer College and was a small business owner. He loved most sports including golf, and skiing. He had a passion for animals especially dogs. He had an infectious laugh that will be missed by many. He survived by his three children, Kyle Maxwell and his wife Stefanie of S.C, Kori Lamb and her husband Jesse of East Hartland, Stacy Maxwell and her fiancé Mark Vincent of Granby; his sisters and brother, Suzanne Bailey-Gates, Linda Maxwell-Crowe, John Maxwell; and six grandchildren, Cooper, Hazel, Samantha, Elijah, Alex, and Gage. He was predeceased by his brother Robert and sister Laurie. A gathering to celebrate his life will be held on Thursday at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford from 10-11:30 a.m. with words of remembrance at 11:30. “ So sorry to hear of Jeff’s passing. I worked with Jeff at CT Party Rentals for many years and he made everything seem less like work more like hanging out and having fun. He seemed to really enjoy life and everyone there enjoyed him. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ To Kyle, Kori and Stacy, my sincerest sympathy over the loss of your Dad. Suzanne, Linda and Terry, I’m so very sorry to hear of Jeff’s passing. I’ll always have sweet memories of being at your home on Boswell Street over the years, visiting Laurie and interacting with Jeff and all of you. He was a very nice guy and he had a wonderful sense of humor. When we were children sometimes Laurie, Jeff and I would race around your yard.. I don’t know who was chasing whom but Jeff was always the fastest. I hope in time, sweet memories of Jeff as a Dad, as a brother, will bring smiles to your faces.

RIP, Jeff. Love, Jean Johnson
