

Jessica A. Dervis

April 16, 2015

Jessica A. Dervis, 101, of Hartford, died Thursday, April 16, 2015, at Hartford Hospital. Born in Waterbury, the daughter of the late Ignace and Anna (Przybylowski) Dervis, she was the oldest of six children. She made her home in Hartford for most of her life and worked as an executive secretary. Jessica would spend every weekend in the car traveling, "to see what she could see." She was raised Roman Catholic, but was ecumenical, and would visit any church she came upon during her travels "to honor God --the building isn't what matters." She is survived by four nieces, Nancy Dervis, Patricia Urich, Susan Blum, and Ann Valdes, all of whom have fond memories learning how to knit under her patient tutelage. She taught us life skills by colorful expressions--telling us "never let money burn a hole in your pocket". Jessica will be buried with her family in Calvary Cemetery, 2324 E. Main St., Waterbury on Saturday, May 2, 2015 at 9 a.m.
