

Joan Teague Gillette

February 6, 2024

Joan Aubanel Teague Gillette, aged 93, beloved wife of Donald Richard Gillette, died on February 6, 2024, in West Hartford, Connecticut. Joan, a life-long resident of West Hartford, was born on June 10, 1930, the daughter of Natalie Rothwell Teague and Wendell Almont Teague. She is survived by her husband Donald; sons Douglas W. Gillette and his wife Elizabeth, Christopher B. Gillette and his wife Kendra, and Martin C. Gillette; grandchildren Charles T. Gillette, William E. Gillette and his husband Tyler, Sarah R. Gillette, and Matthew R. Gillette; and great-grandchildren Caleb T. Gillette and Olivia D. Gillette.

Joan will be well-remembered for her life-long and active membership at Immanuel Congregational Church, her long and successful career at Aetna Life and Casualty Company, her cookbook of family favorites and her best-ever chocolate chip cookies, and her ardent support of the Hartford Whalers. Joan will be best remembered, however, for the profound love she had for her family members and the deep support that she provided to each of them. A memorial service will be held at the convenience of the family.

Tribute Wall

GH

“Joan, was such a “Special” Woman, and She, will be truly missed, by all, her Immanuel Friends. Sending Prayers, and Condolences, to her Family and Friends. 💔

gail hilliard - March 15, 2024 at 05:21 PM

SH

“I worked with Joan at Aetna. She was a lovely person - very caring about her fellow team members and dedicated to doing the best for her assigned customers - a class act all the way around. My condolences to her family.

Sherrie L Hitchcock - February 18, 2024 at 09:37 AM