“ Seems like just yesterday when you came to AFSCME. You were a great co-worker and a pleasure to work with who always had the interest of state employees as the root of what you did. I will miss lunches with you and your management buddies. Rest in peace and bring all your good deeds with you. You will be greatly missed##imported-begin##Robert and Helene Shay##imported-end##

“ God Bless you, Joel.
I remember when I met you that day in 1989 at Council 4. Who was this fast talking New Yorker who knew everything? You were Don Quixote with your impossible dreams a run for governor? and I admired you and marveled at your ability to succeed by the force of your personality. I miss you, buddy, but I know you're probably negotiating better conditions in Heaven. Mickey##imported-begin##Mickey Busca##imported-end##
