

Johan A. Bach

December 12, 1926 - January 10, 2006

Johan A. Bach, 79, formerly of West Hartford, died on Tuesday, January 10, 2006, in Simsbury. He was born in Tres Arroyos, Argentina on December 12, 1926, the son of Jens Bach and Dora Smith Bach. He is survived by his son Michael Richardson-Bach and wife Lisa of Marblehead, MA; his daughter Johanne Bach and husband Bob Black of Simsbury; his son Paul Bach of Newington; his adored grandchildren Ted and Victoria Black and Erik and Elsa Richardson-Bach. He also leaves behind his dear friend and former wife, Nora E. Furlong Bach; his brother, José Bach of San Diego; his sisters, Ulla Favbro and Gerda Hansen of Denmark and Minna Mortensen of Argentina; as well as numerous nieces and nephews, especially Lisbeth Hejndorf and Birgit Bach-Hansen with whom he maintained correspondence. He was proud to be the first of his siblings to have graduated from college, graduating as a Mechanical Engineer. His proudest achievement was having worked to move him and his wife from Argentina to the United States in 1960, where he raised his family, earned M.S. from Stevens Institute of Technology and worked in various states as well as Saudi Arabia. He was a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. His decision to become a mechanical engineer was always one in which he professed a great joy. Johan always showed pleasure in the accomplishments of his family. The family would like to thank the caring staffs of Middlewoods of Newington, The Governor's House of Simsbury and the Farmington Valley VNA. The family will be receiving visitors TODAY at Molloy Funeral home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford from 6-8PM on Thursday, Jan. 12. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers please send donations to Farmington Valley VNA Hospice, 8 Old Mill Rd., Simsbury, CT 06070.

“ I am sad. I have lost a good friend. Johan and I worked together at CSC in Farmington for several years. We often talked about family matters and other things of mutual interest. Johanne and my daughter, Sarah, were classmates at Hall High. Unfortunately, after CSC I lost track of Johan - that is, until I read his obituary. Please accept my sympathies.

Sincerely,
