“ Noted with much sadness the passing of John D'Esopo this past weekend. More than a friend to BVA, John was the glue that held us together, especially in those early days when Al Uhrling was devising all those charts, ways to keep track of statistics and volunteer hours. John's sweet smile and words of encouragement kept us going. He is remembered for being genuine, kind, considerate and thoughtful; more importantly, a loving husband who dearly missed his Rosalie, and a loving grandfather. May he rest in well-earned peace.##imported-begin##Sybil Nassau##imported-end##

“ Such fond memories of John. He always flashed a frindly smile at Bloomfield Town Hall when he was a BVA volunteer. I later got to know him as a loving grandfather and great grandfather. You will always be in our hearts.##imported-begin##Mary Laiuppa##imported-end##
