Jack, a friendly face missed at Sacred Heart and blessed in God's glory. Rest in peace "good and faithful servant" (Matt 25:21).

“ Jack was the first person I met at Sacred Heart Church. He introduced himself to me and asked if I would like to be an adult altar server. Then he invited me back to Father Picher Hall for coffee. This became a regular after 8 o'clock mass on Sunday event from which I was able to meet numerous parish members. Jack was engaging and a raconteur. He loved to talk and tell stories about the past and history. He always greeted you with a big smile and a firm handshake.
Jack was an institution at Sacred Heart Church and will be missed by all.

“ Jack was one of the first people I met when I joined Sacred Heart Church over 30 years ago. He was also one of the nicest men that always greeted me. He always complimented our music ministry & loved to joke about joining the Choir. He was also a big baseball fan & I recall several Big Screen All Star games that he arranged in Fr Picher Hall long before we had big TV sets at home. So sorry his service is private as I would have loved to help send him to angels in the sky.

“ Jack was a dear friend to our family while we lived in Bloomfield and were active at Sacred Heart. There has never been a kinder man than he. My deepest sympathies to his family! He will be sorely missed, but no doubt he is at peace in the loving arms of God.

Jack was always a welcome sight to all here at Saint Mary's. He would visit with his nephew Bob. Many a day he would stay for lunch . I will miss his smiling face.

I have know Jack since he and I were small kids. I was staying with my grandfather Charles F.T Seaverns on Asylum Avenue and I used to wander over to his house on Elizabeth Street for brownies and other treats. I remember Jack in Camden, Maine in the summers and we reminisced several years ago about HAJ boats and racing. He shared photos with us in Suffield ,CT before our house burned in 2019. We planned to get together again for lunch, but our cards and notes were returned so we lost touch where he had moved to from Bloomfield. My husband Dave and I were so sad to learn of his passing and wish that we could have seen him again for more sharing. We send our sympathy, Virginia (Seaverns) Hilyard, Suffield, CT
