

Jonathan Demos

April 7, 1984 - June 24, 2012

Jonathan Demos, born April 7, 1984, with hope, much promise, and great joy. He spent all his years in West Hartford growing from a loving boy to a thoughtful, caring, kindhearted man. He was quickly and cruelly ravaged by an illness that took his hope, stole his promise, and destroyed his joy. He leaves behind many loving hearts that will not mend soon. We pray that he will find the peace he so desperately wanted in the warm embrace of the mother he loved and lost so many years ago. He is survived by his wife Kathryn Guthrie Demos; his father Peter Demos of West Hartford; his sister and brother-in-law Sara and Daniel Avery and their son Charles of West Hartford; his aunts and uncles: Barbara and Richard Flores and their children Anna and Alex, Marsha and John Harris and their daughter Pamela; his mother-in-law and father-in-law, Jean Guthrie and Ed DeGroat; and his brother-in-law Brian Guthrie. Calling hours will be Wednesday, June 27, 2012, from 5-8p.m. at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave., West Hartford. Funeral services will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations in his memory may be made to the American Cancer Society, PO Box 22718, Oklahoma City, OK 73123-1718 or online at www.cancer.org/donate. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ My sincere condolences to the entire Demos family. I remember Jonathan as a child at Braeburn when I worked with Marilyn, his late mother, on the PTO. She had such pride in both her children. And, I remember meeting him again as a young man when he worked at Pfau's - a wonderful smile, warm demeanor. A life cut short...My thoughts are with all of you at this sad time.
