

Joseph Armand Cyr

November 30, 2015

Joseph Armand Cyr, 87, beloved husband of Irma (Lee) Cyr, of West Hartford and formerly of Hartford, died Monday, November 30, 2015. Born in Madawaska, ME., the son of the late Wilfred and Rose Anna (Sirois) Cyr, he made his home in Hartford for over 60 years, recently moving to West Hartford. Joseph served in the US Army and worked as a Construction Superintendent in the Greater Hartford area until his retirement. He was a member of the French Social Circle, St. Jean Baptiste Society in New Britain, and The VFW Post 9929. His favorite pastime was fishing. He fished almost every day and loved sharing his catch with family and friends. Besides his wife of 62 years, he is survived by his two children, Nancy Hornat and her husband Henry of Wethersfield, Roger Cyr and his partner William Gasdaska, Jr. of Darien; his brother Richard and sisters Claire, Simone, Maria Mae, Jeannine and Wilma. He was predeceased by four siblings. Fernand, Gilman, Rita and Constance. Funeral services will be Thursday beginning with visitation at 8:30 a.m. in the Cathedral of St. Joseph, 140 Farmington Ave., Hartford. A Mass of Christian burial will follow at 10:00 a.m. Burial will be in St. Mary Cemetery, New Britain. In lieu of flowers, donations in his memory may be made to Edmundite Missions, 1428 Broad St. Selma, AL 36701. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

“ My name is Maria Delgado Ortiz and I will never forget Joe Cyr. I met him in 2008 when I rented an apartment in his 3 family house (now 118 yrs old)at the West end of Hartford. I met his daughter Nancy and she was as nice as her Dad. He always had a smile on his face. I used to sit with him on the back stairs. At times when I was getting back from work I would see him standing on the porch and I would see him smiling from a distance and a few times as I got closer he would be crying at the same time. I would sit down on the stairs with him to comfort him and would tell me that it was getting harder for him to take care of his wife. I told him that he is able to get help doing that. But he took care of his wife until the end. I cried so much after he sold the house because I didn't know where he was at and I couldn't find Nancy's phone number to go to visit him. The same year that he sold the house he left to be with the Lord (R.I.P) 🙏 Joe. I was so so sad when I found out yrs later. In 2021 I lost my husband (Luis R.I.P 🙏) of 32 yrs. And because I have so many memories of Joe and my husband in this old house, I can't find a way to move 😭 out of here. Nancy if you read this post please come and visit me or drop me a post card to find out how you're doing.

“ I can't remember the last time I saw my dear friend Roger's dad. In fact, I can't even remember the last time I saw my cherished friend Roger. All I know is that I wish to express my condolences and love to the family. I wish I were close enough geographically to express my sympathy in person, but am glad for this opportunity to express my sympathy via the marvels of the internet. Love to all of you, "Sister" Stef
