“ To the Caputa family, I only spoke to Joe, once or twice through a close friend of mine whom I worked with briefly, Tim Seibert. The most important thing I remember about Joe, was hearing in his voice about his faith in Jesus Christ and how God had made such a difference in his life and his work. I hope that you will find some comfort, somehow in these words.

I too am saddened by his sudden death and for your loss, but while he is no longer here with us, he is at home in Heaven with God our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds through Christ. 2 Corinthians 1:3-5

May you feel the comfort of God finding peace in Christ. May you always feel His love for you, as you did from Joe. May you live tomorrow with greater expectation, of the future to see him again in Heaven, for Joe's expectations of Heaven are greater now than he ever imagined or believed.

God bless you and comfort you.

Sincerely,

“ We will cherish many precious moments of Joe. I will never forget what a proud dad he was when both Joseph and Lauren were born. I remember his love for music, his big smile & chuckle and him playing Santa Claus at Christmas. It's so sad he had to leave us so soon. There is comfort knowing he is in a safe and peaceful place. Love and God bless.##imported-begin##Sue & Dave Dederer and kids##imported-end##
