

Joseph P. Wuskell

October 10, 2011

Joseph P. Wuskell, 72, who of late spent his time in West Hartford and Naples, FL, died at John Dempsey Hospital in Farmington on October 10, 2011 after losing a courageous battle with cancer. A graduate of Hall High Class of 1956 he studied chemistry at the University of Connecticut and took a PhD in organic chemistry at the University of Minnesota in 1967. His last position was a Research Associate in the Department of Physiology University of Connecticut Health Center in Farmington. Joe was an avid golfer, and was known to frequent Rockledge Golf Course and many other local courses. Edgewood, Lake Tahoe and Pebble Beach were places he was especially fond of. His other passion was chemistry. His career spans approximately 50 years. He is survived by a sister Mary Ann Dyer of Naples, FL, two brothers; John and Andrew Wuskell both of West Hartford, and a long time companion Beverly Miller of Bloomfield. A niece Julie Dyer Douglas in VA and nephew Thomas Dyer in NC additionally survive him. A special mention of Iris and her cohort Lilly-Belle. Friends may call from 3:30-5 pm on Friday at the Molloy Funeral Home, 906 Farmington Ave. West Hartford. A memorial mass will be held Saturday at 10:00 am in the Church of St. Thomas the Apostle 872 Farmington Ave. West Hartford. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to The Salvation Army, Southern New England Division, 855 Asylum Ave. Hartford CT 06105, or Disabled American Veterans PO Box 14301 Cincinnati, OH 45250 attn: Gift Processing. Online expressions of sympathy may be made at www.molloyfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Beverly,
we're so sorry for your loss. Joe was truly a very special man. He will be sorely missed. Please accept our deepest sympathy. Our thoughts are with you and his family.

Sincerely,

Rob, Kathy, Blair, Sophia and Gabriella##imported-begin##Rob Morell##imported-end##

October 14, 2011 at 12:00 AM