

Joseph Yarish

May 4, 2016

Joseph Yarish, 74, of Manchester, Connecticut, died 5/4/2016, at Touch Points of Manchester. Joe was born in Stamford, Connecticut to Joseph Yarish and Florence Domka Yarish. He grew up with his siblings: Louise (Bert) Gorman (Deceased), Theodore (Diane) Yarish, Leon (Dot) Yarish, Stephanie (Larry) Digoria (Deceased). He is survived by his children: Jill (Michele) McKelvey, Joseph (Linda) Yarish and grandchildren: Shane, Dustin, Erik, Grace and Molly, as well as 6 Great Grandchildren. Joe was a gentle and peace loving man who followed Jesus Christ. He loved the Catholic Church and went to daily Mass when he was well. He spent most of his time living in Essex Connecticut enjoying small town living and visiting with the local priest, his friends and family. He always had a smile for those who came to visit him. Joe especially enjoyed taking long walks and visiting his favorite diners. He had an open heart for special needs people and always saw past their disabilities and instead found friends. Joe made friends where ever he went. He will truly be missed.

Keep yourselves in the love of God, awaiting the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.Jude 21

Our family would like to thank Touch Points of Manchester for their care of our father especially Rhoda and Cheryl. The two of you were a true blessing to Joe. Also thanks for your special care Ashley from Beacon Hospice. Your extra care did not go unnoticed. Additionally the caregivers from St. Mary

Home in West Hartford were greatly appreciated for their long devoted care.

In lieu of flowers please consider a donation to the hospice of your choice.

There will be a celebration Mass on Thursday May 12th at 4pm at The Chapel of St Mary Home, 2021 Albany Ave, West Hartford, CT.
